

Taylor Baines Social Assessment Training Course - March 30-31 2009

Training Course outline
Day 1	Day 2
Session 1: Introductions Learning objectives Social Assessment - concept and process Institutional context in NZ Organisational interests in Social Assessment	Session 5: Use of comparison cases Impact significance and mitigation Ex-post social assessment Process auditing and peer review
Morning Tea	Morning Tea
Session 2: The social dimension of 'environment' and 'sustainable development' The nature of scoping Case studies introduced	Session 6: Overview of social assessment methods and analysis Critical issues in application of particular techniques
Working lunch	Working lunch
Session 3: Complete scoping exercise Participation & social assessment - alignment Stakeholder identification	Session 7: Mitigation of adverse social effects Managing social change and enhancement of social wellbeing Community capacity building
Afternoon Tea	Afternoon Tea
Session 4: Social profiling - understanding the social setting Social wellbeing framework Social data, variables and analysis Links to other modes of assessment	Session 8: Popular misconceptions about social assessment Returning to your organisation Impact Assessment networking and resources

See www.tba.co.nz for further information on this course.